

"A Victorian Christmas to Remember"

Sunday, December 4, 2011 Noon until 4:00 PM

Historic Batsto Village, Hammonton, NJ

Cost is $10.00 per person

Batsto Visitor Center

Enjoy the beautiful sounds of "The Dulcimer Guy" Rich Carty

Noon until 1:00 PM

Batsto Visitor Center Auditorium

At 1:00 PM sharp the Pinelands Regional Thespian Society will present three short vignettes from Charles Dickens' world famous work "A Christmas Carol."

Performances by Preston Forchion and Doug Laubert

Members of the Stockton Oratorio Society.

The first 100 people paying for the presentation will get a complimentary tour of the mansion during scheduled tours being offered that afternoon.

Batsto Mansion

The Mansion will be adorned in the Victorian style, but with a modern flare while still maintaining its bountiful beauty and history!

Batsto Post Office

Visitors to Batsto on Sunday, December 4th can bring their holiday cards, already stamped and addressed, and have them hand cancelled by John Morsa from Somers Mansion serving as postmaster. Due to the age and historical significance of the Batsto Post Office (1852), a zip code is not required to be part of the hand postmark cancellation.

Batsto Post Office Exhibit Room

Enjoy some tasty refreshments!

Find several displays for adults as well as children. Young ones will be encouraged to add a paper card to the traditional tree. Have your photo taken with Santa Dear. Be sure to bring your camera!

Batsto Blacksmith Shop

Toby Kroll, owner of Three Cedars Forge Blacksmithing, will demonstrate some of the techniques and tools of his trade using the Batsto Blacksmith Shop.

Cost is $10 per person for the 1½ hour auditorium presentation starting promptly at 1:00 PM.

Mansion tours will be conducted on a first come first served basis. No reservations accepted. Anyone interested in touring the Mansion at a later date, may do so on any Saturday in December. For more information on tours call 609-561-0024.